

Love British Food!

Putting the "ooo" Back into Food

 Printer version

KENWOOD

 THE NATIONAL TRUST

 ARAMARK

Just Eat More
(fruit & veg)

The Great Inns of Britain

Special Offer for Love British Food

To advertise on this e-newsletter
please call 020 7840 9292
or to email us:
click here

Welcome to our September 2009 e-newsletter...

British Food Fortnight – only days to go! 19 September to 4 October

More British food on menus than ever click here
More British promotions in supermarkets than ever click here
BBC's Hairy Bikers lead chefs into schools during event click here
Eat your way around Britain during the event click here
Download 'Love British Food' posters for your shop or pub click here

1. Supermarket Watch

Bringing you the latest news on British products in the supermarkets...
Read more

2. Inspiring school of the month

Year 10 students at Aylsham High School jumped at the opportunity to work with the chef and catering staff at The National Trust's Blickling Hall in Norfolk as part of an 'Apple Dash'... Read more

3. Producer of the month

Brigitte Tee, Mrs Tee's Wild Mushrooms.

No-one is more fond of fungi than Brigitte Tee. Her foraging career, which began in 1974, has resulted in her becoming an internationally recognised authority on wild mushrooms... Read more

4. British to the Core

Apples are synonymous with Autumn. There are 2,300 British apple varieties to choose from but ransack the supermarket shelves for native apples and you will be sorely disappointed... Read more

5. Competition

Win a £150 Great Inns of Britain voucher which can be used against a stay or a meal at any of the 22 Great Inns of Britain. Just send the correct answer to the following question to us by email: In what year did British Food Fortnight first take place? Clue: see lovebritishfood.co.uk The first correct answer received wins!

For more information on Great Inns of Britain and the competition click here

Nothing heralds the start of Autumn more than the blackberry. Bring out the forager in you and plunder the brambles! Even in towns you will find them on scrubland, canal paths and wooded areas. And you can enjoy them all winter because they freeze well. Is it any wonder the leading smartphone is named after them!

Having trouble printing this e-mail try our printer friendly version.